

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 4:50; sunset, 6:45.

Dr. Louis Lawson, 5036 Cullom av., missing since April 19.

Count De Beaufort arrived in Chicago. Going to lecture.

Small town banks warned to look out for counterfeit $10 bills.

Valuable rug mysteriously slashed at Henry C. Lytton auction sale.

Ambassador Gerard will be here May 3 to address Chicago Bar ass'n.

Railroads decline to recognize authority of state public utilities com'n.

Mrs. Helen A. Jackson, actress, wants divorce from Wm. H. Cruelty.

A Rubenstein, lawyer, sued Judge Gemmill for $100,000, charging libel.

Mrs. May Renes, 2522 N. Western av., got divorce from Wm. G. Cruelty.

Judge Uhlir, morals court, rapped birth control. Said only childless rich are for it.

Mrs. Elsie J. Skillman, Oak Park, got divorce and $10,000 alimony from Frederic B. Desertion.

Max Hoffman, 10, 1041 N. Western av., killed by auto of Emil J. Johnson, 4714 N. Bernard. Latter held.

Ex-Ald. E. J. Werner will leave Chicago for New York. Will handle John R. Thompson's eastern interests.

Mrs. C. S. H. Stewart, Midwest Women's Farm and Garden ass'n, wants 16 girls for Plano, Ill., farm.

Katherine Puncheon, principal of Philadelphia-high school for girls, married to Edw. Pomeroy, local lawyer.

Ned C. Willoughby wants divorce from Rose Willoughby, Sterling hotel. Infidelity charged. Rolla Pennington named.

John Stoyan, 1335 N. Halsted, shot and wounded Thos. Borshak, 3118 W. 16th, during fight in plant of candy company, 2830 Broadway.

Mrs. Dora Greengard, 5942 Prairie av., wants $10,000 damages against Mrs. Wilhelmina Barber, owner of apt. bldg. at 56th and Prairie. Said she got pneumonia in Mrs. Barber's bldg. because of insufficient heat.

Fire caused slight damage at Albany Park theater, Kedzie and Lawrence.

Mrs. Percy B. Coffin, wife of civil service head, shaken up when street car hit taxi.

Rev. Jas. M. Gray, Moody Bible Institute, says war is fulfillment of bible prophecy.

Some one threw odorous "bombs" into Harry Hartman's non-union barber shop, 731 Madison.

Simon J. Campbell got $17,000 verdict against Chicago Surface Lines. Hit by street car year ago.

Hopewell I. Rogers, Chicago Daily News, re-elected pres. American Newspaper Publishers' ass'n.

Robert C. Sims, 4118 Kenmore av., arrested on charge of passing 20 bad checks. Said to have confessed.

Jas. Glary escaped from Dunning. Caught in federal bldg. as he was looking for job as gov't spy. Sent back.

Dr. Raymond A. Sweet, arrested in Los Angeles in connection with $40,000 jewel robbery of Wm. Wrigley's summer home, escaped.

Geraldine Farrar stopped in Chicago on way to California. Denied she was going to return or sell gifts from German crown prince.

Thos. Calow, Belvidere, Ill., arrested as "vagrant," had $145 and six quart bottles of whisky. Afraid Belvidere would go dry. Freed.

Michael Karitch, 5135 Justine, killed and Chas. Kertowski, 5139 Justine, and Wm. Bader, 5001 Wood, hurt when B. & O. train hit wagon.

Dr. Hebron Claflin, 82, who was to have soon married Dr. Mabel Jackman, 5242 Michigan av., died. Was brother of Lady Tennessee Claflin Cook.

Mrs. Mary Bedrone, 829 Coleman av., badly hurt and 25 other passengers bruised when Grand av. street car under control of Albert Redmond, 6918 Giddings st., student motorman, ran wild.